

Offline application

You can use the Assura One app to report when you are out of internet/cell coverage.

The application will automatically switch over to Offline Mode when you are out of coverage. If you report while the application is offline, you will simply need to reopen the application once you reach internet coverage, sign in, and it will submit the report for you.

Ensure you have completed the initial installation of the application before needing to use the offline mode.

