

Want to explore the world?

A BCom in International Business is your stepping stone to working on the international stage.

You can study overseas on exchange and take a language or culture course to build your global experience.

www.canterbury.ac.nz/business

