

Kai hiku, kai ūpoko Tribal Economic Wānanga

25 – 27 February 2016
University of Canterbury

PROGRAMME

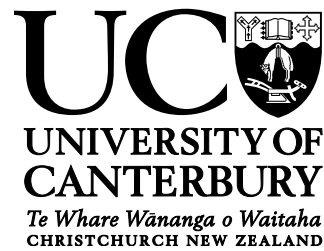

Kai hiku, kai ūpoko serves as a reminder that we are strongest when we ensure that everyone has enough, and in the context of a tribal economy, has the means and self determination to take care of their whānau.

Contributing Sponsors

The Ngāi Tahu Research Centre gratefully acknowledges the financial sponsorship generously given for the conference by the following organisations.

U.S. Embassy New Zealand

Māori and Indigenous Studies Fellowship

Kai hiku, kai ūpoko

Tribal Economic Wānanga

THURSDAY 25 FEBRUARY

6pm

Welcome Reception Shilling Club, University of Canterbury

FRIDAY 26 FEBRUARY Undercroft 101, University of Canterbury

9.30am

Mihi Whakatau and Opening Remarks

Sir Tipene O'Regan and Associate Professor Te Maire Tau

10am

Keynote Speaker

Mr Manny Jules, Chief Commissioner, First Nations Tax Commission, Kamloops, Canada

Facilitators: Mr Darryn Russell, Assistant Vice-Chancellor Māori and Dr Eruera Tarena, (Ngāi Tahu), Kaihautu/Chief Executive at Te Tapuae o Rehua

11am

Morning tea

11.30am

Keynote Speaker

Mr André Le Dressay, Director of Fiscal Realities Economists, Kamloops, Canada

Facilitator: Dr Eruera Tarena, (Ngāi Tahu), Kaihautu/Chief Executive at Te Tapuae o Rehua

12.30pm

Lunch

1.30pm

Keynote Speaker

Professor Robert J. Miller, Professor at Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, Arizona State University, USA

Facilitators: Mr Renata Davis, (Ngāi Tahu whānui), Solicitor, AWS Legal (Murihiku) and Mr Christopher Brankin, (Ngāi Tahu whānui), Policy Advisor, Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu

2.30pm

Summary of the day

Associate Professor Te Maire Tau, Director, Ngāi Tahu Research Centre

3.30pm

End of day one

Refreshments and whakawhanaungatanga

Kai hiku, kai ūpoko

Tribal Economic Wānanga

SATURDAY 27 FEBRUARY Undercroft 101, University of Canterbury

10am Keynote Speaker
Ms Liz Medicine Crow, President/CEO First Alaskans Institute, Anchorage, Alaska
Facilitator: Ms Lisa Tumahai, Deputy Kaiwhakahaere, Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu

11am Morning tea

11.30am Plenary Session
Maximising Export Returns through Cultural Authenticity
Facilitator: Dr John Reid, Ngāi Tahu Research Centre
Speakers: Professors Caroline Saunders and Paul Dalziel, Agribusiness and Economics Unit, Lincoln University

12.30pm Lunch

1.30pm Plenary Session
Making it Work
Speakers: Ms Helen Leahy, Interim CEO for Te Pūtahitanga,
Mr Jymal Morgan, Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu and
Dr John Reid, Senior Research Fellow, Ngāi Tahu Research Centre

2.30pm Te Pae Tawhiti - New Horizons
Facilitated Group Discussion

3.30pm Karakia and closing

Guest Speakers

Clarence T. (Manny) Jules

Kamloops, British Columbia, Canada

Elder of the Secwepemc, co-founding member of the Shuswap Nation Tribal Council and Chief Commissioner, First Nations Tax Commission.

Liz Medicine Crow (Haida, Tlingit)

Anchorage, Alaska

President/CEO of First Alaskans Institute

André Le Dressay

Kamloops, British Columbia, Canada

Director of Fiscal Realities Economists. Co-author of 'Beyond the Indian Act: Restoring Aboriginal Property Rights'.

Michael LeBourdais

Kamloops, British Columbia, Canada

Chief of the Whispering Pines Clinton Indian Band, Director of Cayoose Creek Developments Ltd and Chairman of the Tulo Centre for Indigenous Economics.

Robert J. Miller

Tempe Arizona, USA

Professor at Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, Arizona State University.

Faculty Director of the Rosette LLP American Indian Economic Development Program.

Caroline Saunders

Lincoln University, Canterbury, New Zealand

Professor of Trade and Environmental Economics and Director, Agribusiness and Economics Research Unit (AERU)

Paul Dalziel

Lincoln University, Canterbury, New Zealand

Professor of Economics and Deputy Director, Agribusiness and Economics Research Unit (AERU)

Helen Leahy

Acting CEO for Te Pūtahitanga

Notes

Notes

Ngāi Tahu Research Centre
University of Canterbury

Te Whare Wānanga o Waitaha
Private Bag 4800
Christchurch 8140
New Zealand

www.ntrc.canterbury.ac.nz