

		Stream 1	Stream 2	Stream 3	Stream 4	Stream 5	Stream 6	Stream 7
Time	Block	Rehua 103	Rehua 329	Rehua 003	Rehua 528	Rehua 101	Rehua 102	Rehua 002
		Climate I (Chair: Amy Barrow)	Labour Law I (Chair: Annick Masselot)	Approaches to Justice (Chair: Marc Trabsky)	Property, Investment & Capital (Chair: Isa Alade)	Parental rights and responsibilities (Chair: Rinda Amalia)	Indigenous I (Chair: Fleur Te Aho)	Ethics and Methods for Doing Rape Trials Roundtable (Chair: Kirsty Duncanson)
Wed 3 Dec 2025 16:30–18:00	Parallel Sessions One	Climate change, access to justice and system preparedness - Monica Taylor	Out of character: 15 seconds of fame and the construction of the Australian lawyer - Sarouche Razi	Human rights and the criminal justice system – uneasy bedfellows - Victoria Colvin	The responsiveness of law to the reality of property - Richard Stewart	Involuntary Fatherhood: Reproductive Autonomy and Justice - Vera Bergelson	Enabling rangatiratanga: A Tuahiwi Land Authority as a Pilot for Growth and Development - Te Maire Tau	Ethics and Methods for Doing Rape Trial Research - Kirsty Duncanson, Luke McNamara
		Strengthening Climate Disclosure Regulation through Stakeholder Insights: Bridging Law and Accounting - Simone Schwoerer	Reimagining Contracts for Contractors: why this is needed and where to begin - Lynne Coker& Amanda Reilly	Unravelling Speciesism in International Criminal Justice - Shannon Fyfe	Race, Capital and Empire: re-reading Loke Yew v Port Swettenham Rubber Co - Nicole Graham	Unheard and Unprotected: Reclaiming Maternal Health Rights During Childbirth under International Human Rights Law - Rinda Amalia	Navigating Equality through the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples: Towards Relationality - Fleur Te Aho	Ethics and Methods for Doing Rape Trial Research - Emma Henderson, Julia Quilter
		Advancing child rights in a changing climate: exploring taiohi/children and young people's experience of a Tiriti/Treaty based climate assembly in Porirua, Aotearoa New Zealand - Conor Twyford	Negotiating Labour Rights Beyond Ratification: Women Garment Workers and the Promise of ILO Convention 190 - Achalie Kumarage	Danger to mankind: Towards a multispecies approach to drug law and policy - Kate Seear	Implementation of Social Procurement Policies in Government Infrastructure Projects - Rhonda Bell	A critical Socio-Legal Review of Vanuatu's Family Protection Act 2008 - Emma Guillain	Constitutional Recognition of Indigenous Peoples: Global Approaches to Rights, Relationality and Reciprocity in Aotearoa and Beyond. By Professor Claire Charters & Erin Matariki Carr - Erin Matariki Carr	Ethics and Methods for Doing Rape Trial Research - Paulette Benton-Greig, Claire Baylis
		Law in the Lab: Rights Responsibilities and Public Value in Climate Experimentation - Katherine Owens	Powerless responsibility: contradictory mothering ideologies within Australian labour laws - Emma Graham	Captured: Copyright's White Male Gaze, the Body Politic and the Politics of the Body - John Tehranian	Cracks in the Law: the Tort of Breach of Statutory Duty in Defective Building Cases - Simon Schofield	From Defeat to Reform: The Interaction of Courts and Politics in China's Reproductive Justice Movement - Qian Xue	Weaving tikanga Māori and settler law in the personal grievance procedure - Xavier Walsh	Ethics and Methods for Doing Rape Trial Research - Yvette Tinsley
		International Perspectives & Environment (Chair: Esther Erlings)	Corporate & Consumer I (Chair: Achalie Kumarage)	Criminal Justice I (Chair: Bill Burke)	Disaster I LEAD A (Chair: Natalie Baird)	Oceans, Rivers, Water (Chair: Rachael Mortiaux)	Indigenous II (Chair: Sarah Down)	Gender I (Chair: Amy Barrow)
Thu 4 Dec 2025 09:00–10:30	Parallel Sessions Two	Women, Water, and Confidence-Building in Transboundary Cooperation and Peacebuilding in the South Caucasus - Roisin Burke	New Zealand's Open Banking Journey: Legal and Regulatory Implications of the Consumer Data Right Framework - Isa Alade	The Responsibilities of Death Investigators in the Age of Techno-solutionism - Marc Trabsky	Defining Disaster: I do not think that word means what you think it means - John Hopkins	No Hawaiki-nui, ki Hawaiki-nui: Tikanga Māori and the law of the moana - Sophie Coomber	Sustaining whakapapa: Adapting the Indian Child Welfare Act 1978 to transform care and protection for tamariki and rangatahi Māori in Aotearoa - Siobhan Patia	Domestic Violence-Victims' Protection Act 2018 '... Does it really protect victims? - Chunyu Han
		Rules and Reality: Power and Practice at the International Seabed Authority - Alexandra Teague	Who Owns AI Outputs? Economic Rights in the Age of Generative AI - Nirogini Thambaiya	Bridging Theory and Practice: A Study of Situated Learning Through a Fictional Case Brief in Evidence Law - Stephanie Falconer	'Emergency Creep: The Proliferation of Emergency Powers Outside of Emergencies' - Sascha Muller	Beyond Boundaries: Relationality and Reciprocity as Foundations for Flexible Marine Law - Rachael Mortiaux	The Family Tree System: An indigenous approach to customary land recording and registration in Solomon Islands - Frederick Saeni	Reciprocity in Indigenous cultural immersion programs for the judiciary: Community and judicial perspectives on 'two-way' learning and benefits - Gillian Kennedy with Anna Dwyer
		Promoting Energy Justice Litigation in Oceania: The Powers and Limitations of International Climate Law - Francine Hug	Reimagining Responsibility in AI Governance: Comparative Insights for Enhancing Deployers' Obligations in New Zealand - Lam Chen Meng	"Everything's Grey": Reflections on the experience of women on remand in New Zealand - Yvette Tinsley with Alexandra Forlong	'Prisons, Human Rights and Disaster Risk' Marozane Spamers	Rethinking the Carceral Creep in Water Governance - Rachel Killean Cristy Clark & Erin O'Donnell	Who are the beneficiaries? Lithium exploitation, Indigenous peoples and benefit sharing in Chile: the problem of inter-community distribution - Cristóbal Gonzalo Carmona Caldera	Auditing the auditors: does parliamentary scrutiny enhance the gender-responsiveness of legislation? - Jacqueline Mowbray
		From extraction to stewardship: Restoration, reciprocity and 'de-centering' environmental law - Emille Boulot	Reconsidering ICSD in the Context of Global Just Transitions - Kyla Tienhaara	Hearing all that is expressed: A feminist listening to the silencing of rape complainants while giving evidence - Paulette Benton-Greig	The Limits of Regional Disaster Law: Transboundary Haze Pollution and the ASEAN Way' - Ibnu Sitompul	Rights and Relationality: Pathways to a Greener Transitional Justice - Rachel Killean	Blue Carbon Landscapes and Indigenous Authority in the Northern Territory - Claire Burgess	Empowering Women and Grassroots Organisations in Timor-Leste through Interdisciplinary and Inter-Institutional Collaboration - Francesca Marzatic
		People on the Move (Chair: Marie Aronsson-Storrier)	Rights I (Chair: Cassandra Mudgway)	Criminal Justice II (Chair: Bill Burke)	Disaster II (Chair: John Hopkins)	Civil Claims and Vulnerable Populations (Chair: Esther Erlings)	More Than Human (Chair: Bill Swannie)	Prefigurative Pluralities (Chair: Kathleen Birrell)
Thu 4 Dec 2025 11:00–12:30	Parallel Sessions Three	Belonging and Exclusion, in Life and in Law: Learning from Migrants in Cork - Marie Aronsson-Storrier	Nature & Culture in The Double Bind of "Rights" - Raffaele Sindoni	Employment, volunteering, rehabilitation or involuntary servitude?: exploring the role of the law in the entrenchment of prison labour in Aotearoa New Zealand. - Laura Johnstone	Gender, Rights, and Risk: Addressing Child Vulnerability in Disasters through Lessons from Armed Conflict - Annick Masselot	When Money Becomes a Weapon: Migrant Vulnerabilities and the "Misuse" of Companies and Trusts - Wenny Sampa	Motherhood as Methodology: Collaborative Approaches to More-Than-Human-Rights Research - Meghan Robinson	Prefigurative Pluralities - Kathleen Birrell 'Prefiguring Obligations'
		Evacuations as a Relational Process of Human (Im)mobility - Regina Jefferies	Living Wages: Confronting a human rights issue with the opportunity for a socio-economic multiplier - Sharath Martin	Indigenous Female Victims as an Aggravating Factor in Canadian Sentencing : Colonial Discrimination or Genuine Protection? - Philippe Boucher	Rethinking Legal Responses to Violence Against Women During Disasters in Aotearoa New Zealand - Silke Clausung	Mental Injury under ACC: Incoherent, Inequitable and Unprincipled - Benjamin Onions	Doing ecosystem governance differently: the Antipodean approach to rights of Nature implementation - Libby Newton	Prefigurative Pluralities - Cristy Clark, John Page 'Prefiguration as both method and subject: researching the right to swim movement'
		Embodied Fictions: Credibility, Reasoning, and the Structuring of Uncertainty in Refugee Assessment - Kristian Hollins	Caring for clients and cause: conceptualising lawyering in the anti-trafficking space - Samantha Currie	Criminal Act or Criminal Type? Whiteness as a mitigation to serious crime in colonial and contemporary Australia - Meg Foster	The Right to an Effective Remedy After a Disaster: Case Studies from New Zealand - Natalie Baird & Toni Collins	US Civil Rights Class Actions After Trump v CASA - James Metzger	The Legal Production of "Nature": Rights of Nature and the Resource Paradigm in Colombian Law - Alexandra Cumbe Figueroa	Prefigurative Pluralities - Margaret Davies, 'Law's Geostory'
		Beyond the Binary: Assessing LGBTI Protection Visa Claims in Australian Administrative Law - Allen George & Jeff Milgate	Piecemeal Reform of Anti-Discrimination Laws in the Asia-Pacific: The Challenge of Pursuing Comprehensive Legislation - Amy Barrow	Assisted Dying Without an Underlying Legal Framework – The Cautionary Tale of Germany - Kerstin Braun	Effects of Climate-induced Relocation on Communities in Fiji - Rita Sami	The Socio-Legal Impacts of Gender in Defamation Claims in the United Kingdom and New Zealand - Ursula Cheer	Protecting Migratory Waterbirds on the East Asian-Australasian Flyway: The Impact of International Commitments on National Efforts Protecting Waterbirds and Habitats in Indonesia and New Zealand - Ibnu Sitompul	Prefigurative Pluralities - Rhys Aston, 'Geonormativities'
		Gender II (Chair: Ursula Cheer)	CLASS in Session!!! Corporate Law and Society Scholars (Chair: Annick Masselot)	Access to Justice (Chair: Natalie Baird)	Trial Scepticism (Chair: Mehera San Roque)	Rights II (Chair: Esther Erlings)	Indigenous III (Chair: Hayden Turoa)	You Don't Have to Burn Books: Fahrenheit 451, AI, and Legal Archives (Chair: Sarah Hook)
Fri 5 Dec 2025 09:00–10:30	Parallel Sessions Four	Legal Narratives of Spiritual-Sexual Coercion - Anna High	CLASS in Session!!! Corporate Law and Society Scholars - Annick Masselot	Access to justice and representation in administrative tribunals - Hanna Wilberg	Trial Scepticism - Mehera San Roque	Mapping Child Marriage within the History of International Law: A Turn to the Archives of the 1926 Slavery Convention - Didar Shwan	He Kawa Ora: Indigenous Jurisprudence in Whanganui - Hayden Turoa	Welcome to the Burn Unit: AI, Misinformation, and the Voluntary Erasure of Culture - Sarah Hook
		From Chastity to Chastising: A Study of Artificial Intelligence as Morality Police in Gendered Encounters - Amir Nahidi	Catholic Dioceses, Legal Systems, and Corporate Accountability, Chapter 1: 'Catholic Organisations and Child Sexual Abuse: A Corporate Wrong' - Meredith Edelman	A unified approach: Collective impact to improve access to civil justice in Aotearoa - Kayla Stewart	Trial Scepticism - Gary Edmond	Dignity by Design: Reimagining legal responses to survivors of child sexual abuse - Dr Sarah Ciftci, Professor Susan Heward-Belle & Dr Lynette Stevenson	A Relational Duty of Good Faith: Rethinking Legal Accountability for Freshwater - Sarah Down & Jessica Ridell	Archiving the Self: Data and the Destruction of Memory - Jacinta Sassine
		Deepfakes, Rights and Regulation in Aotearoa New Zealand - Cassandra Mudgway	Corporations, Technology, and the Law, Chapter 4: 'Employees and Other Stakeholders'. - Akshaya Kamalnath	Non-Lawyer Advocates' Identity and Role in Family and Employment Law - Bridgette Toy-Cronin	A neo concession approach to corporate regulation and Indigenous autonomy - Jonathan Barrett	A theory of participative justice for litigants in person - Gráinne McKeever	Indigenous Visual Jurisprudence - Metiria Turei	Death of the Reader: Reading and Construction of the Legal Citizen in the Age of AI - Kaitlyn Poole
		The Rule of Kings and the Woman Question: A feminist interrogation of parliamentary sovereignty - Helena Palmer	Chapter from Research Handbook on Corporate Sustainability, Law and Society, 'Corporate Sustainability through Due Diligence: Lessons Learnt and Way Forward' - Rangika Palliyarachchi	Justice of Geography: legal services and justice in remote and very remote western NSW - Patricia Vagg	Typology of "Nature" in Rights of Nature - Sam Carter	Privacy and ever increasing regulation of children: Is our collective desire to protect children actually impinging on their right to privacy? - Sarah Butcher	Te Tiriti, Tikanga and Labour: Worker perspectives on Māori Specific Collective Agreement Clauses - Ria Holmes	From Public Good to Residual Function - Reimagining Social Housing Through Law, Inclusion, and Reciprocal Responsibility - Deirdre Howard-Wagner
		Speech, Resistance, Protest Rights and Cultural Change (Chair: Bill Swannie)	Rights and Vulnerability (Chair: Uchechykwu Ngwaba)	The University (Chair: Sascha Mueller)	Child and Family (Chair: Natalie Baird)	Rights and personhood (Chair: Rachael Mortiaux)	Book Launch – Employment & Privacy (Chair: Annick Masselot)	Researching Preventive (in)Justice: Indigenous Research Methodologies and Decolonial Legal Research (Chair: Tamara Tulich)
Fri 5 Dec 2025 11:00–12:30	Parallel Sessions Five	Hate speech and protected speech on Australian university campuses - Bill Swannie	Connecting with Nature in Ageing Societies: Finding Normative Bases for Nature Prescriptions - Esther Erlings & Pattarachit (Nash) Gozzoli	Feminist Legislation in the Classroom: Using radical imagination to embed critical approaches to law in the curriculum - Becky Batal	An Empirical Study of Family Provision Litigation - Ben Chen	Legal personhood was just the beginning! Communities' ongoing activism to safeguard their territorial autonomy - Julia Torres Ventura	Book Launch – Perspectives on the fourth industrial revolution and workers' right to privacy (Supported by the Labour Law Association) Chair: Associate Professor Jonathan Barrett Dr Amanda Reilly - Surveillance, Freedom of Expression, and Freedom of Association in New Zealand Amy Han and Professor Annick Masselot - Gender, Privacy, and the Public-Private Divide Professor Joshua Fairfield – Why Going to Work Means Being Under Surveillance, and What to Do About It	Critical reflexivity in preventive justice research - Tamara Tulich
		Hate speech law and the impact on resistance and speaking back - Nicole Shackleton	Is the UN system embracing a relational approach to care and support rights? An assessment of recent developments and their international and domestic implications - Yvette Maker	Prevent What? The Prevent Duty and Freedom of Expression about Palestine at English Universities - James Godfrey	The Myths and the Misery: Legal Responses to Child Labour in Aotearoa New Zealand - Dawn Duncan	Accounting for Indigenous Relationality in Wellbeing Assessment: The Case of The Martuwarra Fitzroy River - Elizabeth Damoah		A framework for Decolonising and Indigenising nineteenth century justice, in the South West of Western Australia - Eric Hayward
		Freedom of expression and cultural change in New Zealand - Ursula Cheer	What sort of problem is a school lunchbox? Assumptions and practices in food governance - Liesel Spencer	"...whakawhanaungatanga will fix the world" - but will it really? - Teresa Brown	On the role of law in recognising and preventing the educational and developmental harms that arise for children with learning-related disabilities in schools in the light of neuroplasticity research - Anna FitzGerald	Beyond rights and personhood: recognising nature as a legal subject - Alice Bleby		Gulyu Research Methodology - Michelle Sims
		Dignity, double standards, and hate speech regulation in New Zealand - Eddie Clark	'Compassionate Coercion? Problematising the Strategic Use of PSPOs in Adult Safeguarding Practice' - Jennifer Hendry & Amanda Keeling	The Reparatory Law School - Nicole Watson & Michael Thomson	The potential role of feedback and recalibration mechanisms in legal decision-making - Dr Judy (Judith) Cashmore & Sarah Ciftci	The Impact of 'Aqua Nullius' on Indigenous Women's Water Rights in Settler-States' - Katie O'Bryan & Kate Harriden		Rights, Relationality and Replaceability: Constructing Rats in Science and Law - Marie Fox
		Punishment, protest and resistance (Chair: Natalie Baird)	Rights, Gender and Tech (Chair: Cassandra Mudgway)	Mental Health and Criminal Justice (Chair: Marozane Spamers)	Rights and Regulation (Chair: Amy Barrow)	Courts, communities and rights (Chair: Doratheia Anthony)	Author Meets Reader: LSAANZ Book Prize (Chair: Esther Erlings)	Law and Activism through History (Chair: Susan Bartie)
Fri 5 Dec 2025 13:30–15:00	Parallel Sessions Six	The impact of punitive justice and regional inaction on Samoa's methamphetamine crisis - Bill Burke	Even If She Did It: Systemic Epistemic Failure and the Gendered Politics of Blame in the Lucy Letby Case - Zoe Prebble	Mental health and criminal justice in New Zealand - Marozane Spamers	Designing a Regional Health Governance Approach for Equitable Pandemic Management in the Inter-American System – A Scoping Review - Uchechukwu Ngwaba	Overcoming Stereotypes and Prejudice: Mild Judicial Activism and the Realization of Constitutional Rights in Japan - Keisuke Mark Abe	Book Author - Rachel Killean, with Margaret Davis (discussant)	Studying Lawyers and the Environment through Legal Biography - Susan Bartie
		A legal geography of (in)security: anti-infrastructure protest in the Anthropocene - Dhiraj Nainani	An argument for a trauma-informed curriculum to better equip law graduates for sexual offence trial work - Kirsty Duncanson & Emma Henderson	The changing landscape of mental health policy - Lin Mussell	Gaming the algorithm: An examination of public law objections to the refusal to disclose algorithmic decisions - Alexandra Sinclair	A Balancing Act: How Victoria's Specialist Family Violence Courts Implement a Therapeutic Approach within an Adversarial Legal Environment - Allannah Colley		The Pākehā (R)Evolution - Caitlin Moffat-Young
		The Care-ful work of using law: a study of women climate and environmental defenders - Beth Goldblatt	Professional Boundaries in the Regulation of Treatment for Young Trans People - Chris Dietz	Maori and mental health - Jessica Maclean	Implanted medical devices for diabetes: Regulating the collection, storage and future use of electronic data in the Australian context - Rebecca Millar	The Illusion of Indivisible Rights - Dorothea Anthony		Like and unlike 'Law'. Thinking about legality in a (Buddhist) religious community - Ben Schonthal
		Law from Below: Co-Production of Community-led Guidelines on extractive activities in West Rennell - Francesca Marzatic	Customisation and AI integration of Sexbots - What in the Human Rights is This? - Nicole Shackleton, Christina & Georgia	Mental health and the explanation of crime - James Mehigan	Exploring legal regulation of medical interventions on minors with innate variations of sex characteristics (IVSC) - Aileen Kennedy	Building resilience and a trauma-informed culture of legal practice through systematised education – where does the responsibility sit? - Rita Shackel		Empirical Legal Scholarship in Australia and New Zealand: A Meta-Empirical Reflection - Joshua Yuvaraj