

Are you a few credits short of NCEA University Entrance?

Hagley College might be able to help you catch up, so you can start study at the University of Canterbury in Semester 1, 2023

CONTACT

Hagley College:

Transitions Teams

Ph: 03 3793 090

E: transitionsteam@hagley.school.nz

www.hagley.school.nz

NEXT STEPS:

- 1 Call NZQA on 0800 697 296 to find out how many credits you are missing, and in which subjects.
- 2 Contact Hagley College to find out if they can help you catch up
- 3 Hagley College will advise UC if you have been accepted into their Intensive Catch Up programme
- 4 UC will grant you Provisional Admission for Semester 1 only, so your UC application can be processed further. (Haven't applied to enrol at UC yet? Go to www.canterbury.ac.nz/enrol)
- 5 UC expects to receive your NCEA grades from HAGLEY College no later than 13 February 2023
- 6 Start your UC studies in February 2023.
- 7 Hagley College will upload your catch up credits to NZQA.
- 8 UC will check your NCEA Record of Achievement and will let you know if you will be allowed to continue your UC studies beyond Semester 1 (if you have met UE requirements) or not (if you haven't met UE requirements).

Accommodation options may be available during January and early February. Please see www.canterbury.ac.nz/life/accommodation/