Workload expectations

What does a STAR course involve?

Most of the UC courses that are open to STAR students are 15-point courses run over one semester. Most students would have a workload of on average 8 hours a week, which can include time spent in class, reading the online course materials, working on assignments and preparing for and sitting an exam/test. ECON199 is a 15-point course run over the whole year and has a workload of on average 4 hours a week.

Declaration

I understand that although successful completion of this course entitles me to be awarded credit towards a University of Canterbury degree when I have qualified for University Entrance, it does not constitute admission as a University of Canterbury student. I also understand that my school will be advised of my results.

International student: I hereby authorise University of Canterbury to act as an agent on my behalf for the purpose of liaising with Immigration New Zealand for the application and decision of any Variation of Conditions of my current secondary school student visa.

I agree as a condition of my enrolment to read information on my UC Student email and web portal at least once per week.

I understand that the University of Canterbury will collect, store, use and disclose personal information about me in the course and for the purpose of, conducting its normal and proper business and for the purpose of marketing/public relations, fundraising and maintaining donor records, and that a unique identifier will be assigned to me to facilitate this. I have read and understand how such information will be managed and disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993, and as outlined on the UC Privacy Statements, see www.canterbury.ac.nz/privacy/. This privacy statement operates in conjunction with the University of Canterbury's Privacy Policy. Where there is any conflict with the Privacy Policy, the terms of the Privacy Policy will prevail. I acknowledge that I have the right to access and seek correction of personal information held about me and understand that if I withhold information or provide false or misleading information my enrolment may be terminated.

The personal information collected will be controlled by the University, while you remain enrolled, and for such time thereafter as is necessary for the University to fulfil its administrative obligations, or for the purposes of providing alternative enrolment pathways. As well as for the purposes of conducting its proper business, the University uses personal information for a variety of statistical and research purposes, but in so doing it always ensures that no individual can be identified.

What do I agree to?

By agreeing to the above declaration:

- I declare that all the information submitted in this consent form is correct and complete, and that I accept the terms of the UC Student Code of Conduct, see www.canterbury.ac.nz/support/concerns/students/student-code-of-conduct/. The UC Student Code of Conduct outlines the behaviours expected of students enrolled at UC. You are expected to comply with all laws of New Zealand, all Christchurch city by-laws, University statutes and University policies.
- A breach of the code of conduct is a breach of your agreement with the University and may result in penalties imposed by the University Proctor or Discipline Committee. These penalties may include fines, academic penalties, and limits on academic progression or in the worst cases expulsion from the University. See the UC discipline regulations at www.canterbury.ac.nz/regulations/general-regulations/discipline-regulations.
- The disciplinary procedures are available in the regulations. The appeals process is found in the Appeals and Grievances Policy, see www.canterbury.ac.nz/about/governance/ucpolicy/general/academic-appeals-and-grievances-principles-and-procedures/.
- I acknowledge that if I provide incorrect or incomplete information this may result in the cancellation of my enrolment.
- I acknowledge that the submission of fraudulent, forged, or otherwise dishonest documentation in support of this application will automatically disqualify me from enrolment. I understand that in such a case the University of Canterbury reserves the right to inform all other New Zealand universities of the fact along with my name and date of birth and that the Police and/or Immigration may also be informed.
- I consent to the collection and use of my personal information as outlined above.
