Conditions of International Student Care Ltd Service

- The first 8 weeks' homestay is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- Students can stay longer than the 8 weeks minimum time with the host family, but one week's notice must be given to International Student Care Ltd prior to vacating their homestay. 'A Request to Leave Homestay Form' is to be completed by the student and the student must inform the University.
- If a student is away from home for 5 consecutive nights of any course break, up to a maximum of 3 weeks<sup>1</sup>, they can pay one third of their weekly board rate to hold their room. This is known as a "retainer". Students must inform their host family and International Student Care Ltd of their plans in advance.
- Students agree not to enter into any private arrangement with their homestay.
- Students must abide by the laws of New Zealand and the behavioural standards in the Orientation Booklet and be aware of their responsibilities as an overseas student and representative of their country.
- Students are not permitted to possess any offensive weapons.
- Students will not purchase a motor vehicle until they have a legal driving licence for New Zealand.
- International Student Care Ltd is not liable for loss, damage or injury to the student or their property.
- International Student Care Ltd is not liable for any loss or damage to property or person caused by the student's actions.
- International Student Care Ltd shall not be liable for the student during the Christmas/ New Year period.
- If behavioural standards mentioned in the Orientation Booklet are not followed, International Student Care Ltd reserves the right to terminate the student's stay in the host family immediately with no refund of the 8 weeks' non-refundable board or appropriate fee of 1 week's notice.
- The student will notify the University of Canterbury immediately on leaving the homestay.
- International Student Care Ltd reserves the right to review and increase the homestay fee each year and invoice the student for the additional amount. The parents and student are liable to pay International Student Care Ltd the fee rate in force on the day they begin their homestay in New Zealand.

- Translation of this English version is for information only. The English version is the legal version for any disputes. This Agreement will be construed by the law of New Zealand and shall only be justifiable in New Zealand Courts.

The parents and student will indemnify and keep indemnified International Student Care Ltd against all claims made against it by the University of Canterbury or the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Canterbury arising from claims by the student, the parents, the student's families, auspices, trustees or any person associated with them arising from the accommodation arranged by International Student Care Ltd or relating to services supplied by International Student Care Ltd under this Agreement. The parents and student acknowledge that they have been given advice to obtain independent legal advice before signing this Agreement and acknowledge that signing this Agreement is a full waiver of the requirement to obtain independent legal advice.

The parents and student each acknowledge that they have read, understood and agree to this contract and its conditions.

Personal Information

The personal information we ask you to provide on this form is needed to enable International Student Care Ltd to place you with a host family and to provide any further ongoing services as required until you leave your homestay. As your privacy is important, your information is collected and held in accordance with the University of Canterbury's Privacy Policy which can be found at www.canterbury.ac.nz/ucpolicy/.

Your personal information is accessible by staff of the University of Canterbury and the owners and staff of International Student Care Ltd for these purposes and in accordance with the University's Privacy Policy. Information may be shared with other people, for example, your host family, so we can provide homestay services to you. We may also share information in an emergency or if you consent to your information being shared. Information will be released if required by law.

We also use personal information for statistical and research purposes but always ensure that no individual can be identified.

The personal information you supply will be held by the University of Canterbury and/or International Student Care Ltd while you remain in a homestay and can be updated by you at any time.

If you have any questions about the privacy of your personal information please contact the University's Privacy Officer, the Registrar, Mr Jeff Field, jeff.field@canterbury.ac.nz.
