

Specific Learning Difficulties

Assessment of specific learning difficulties (SLD) for University purposes is to be carried out by a registered psychologist or a registered assessor with SPELD.

Students are to provide an assessment of their SLD diagnosis and learning needs to the Equity & Disability Service (EDS). If you do not have an assessment then you can contact an assessment provider of your choice and arrange for an assessment to be carried out.

Local assessment providers include:

Seabrook McKenzie Centre

www.seabrookmckenzie.net

68 London St

Christchurch 8013

Telephone: 03 381 5383

Approximate cost $480;

$420 with Student ID

$310 for full time students

The Psychology Centre

Level 2, Geography Building

University of Canterbury

Telephone: 03 343 9627

Email: psychclinic@canterbury.ac.nz

Approximate cost: $600

SPELD

www.speld.org.nz

Hammersley Park School

Hammersley Ave

Christchurch 8013

Telephone: 0800 773 536

Approximate cost: $460 - $530 – subsidies available

If you have any queries about assessment providers please contact an EDS disability advisor.

Prior to this information being received the EDS disability advisor may put in place interim resources to support you and will review these once you have provided a report.