Governance Statement
Te Tauākī Mana Arataki

This statement is an overview of the University’s main governance policies, practices and processes followed by the Council.

Compliance with NZX best practice code and other guidelines
The NZX listing rules require issuers to disclose in their annual report whether and to what extent their governance principles materially differ from the NZX Corporate Governance Best Practice Code. There are no significant differences from the NZX Corporate Governance Best Practice Code other than to reflect that the University is governed by the Education Act 1989 (Education Act). The University is also required to comply with the Crown Entities Act 2004, as it applies to Tertiary Education Institutions, and with the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013.

The following section summarises the key governance and compliance policies and procedures in place.

Code of Conduct
The University expects Council Members to maintain high ethical standards that are consistent with its core values, business objectives and legal and policy obligations. A Register of Interests is maintained for all Council members and is published in all meeting agendas. Conflicts of interest are a standing issue to be considered in a meeting of the Council or committee.

A formal Handbook has been adopted by the Council. The Handbook sets the ethical standards expected of Council Members and deals specifically with receipt and use of information, receipt and use of assets and property, delegated authorities, compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules and policies and a general obligation to act honestly and in the best interest of the University.

Role of the Council
The Council is the governing body of the University. It is responsible for the governance of the University, and its powers are set out in the Education Act 1989. Its powers include the oversight of the University for the governance of the University, and its powers are set out in the Education Act 1989. Subject to section 173, the maximum term for any member, other than the Vice-Chancellor, shall be three consecutive four-year terms.

Council Members (other than the Vice-Chancellor) are paid fees at such rates (not exceeding the maximum rates fixed by the Minister in accordance with the fees framework determined by the Government from time to time) as the Council determines.

Delegation of authority
The Council delegates its authority where appropriate to the Vice-Chancellor for the day-to-day affairs of the University. Formal policies and procedures exist that detail the delegated authorities and parameters that the Vice-Chancellor and, in turn, his direct reports are able to operate within.

Continuous disclosure obligations
Continuous disclosure obligations of the NZX require all issuers to advise the market about any material events and developments as soon as they become aware of them. The University complies with these obligations on an ongoing basis.

Operation of the Council
The Council has regular (usually monthly) meetings. Key executives attend Council meetings by invitation. For each meeting, the Vice-Chancellor prepares a report to the Council that includes a summary of the University’s activities, together with financial reports and operational updates. In addition, the Council receives regular briefings on key strategic issues from management.

The University offers the usual Council Members’ induction for newly appointed Council Members. All Council Members have advice from the Tertiary Education Commission on the governance role they fulfil and are provided with a detailed handbook of University policies, procedures and protocols. The Council Secretary, the University Registrar, is available for advice at any time.

Vice-Chancellor | Tumu Whakarae
The Council is responsible for the evaluation of the Vice-Chancellor against his key performance objectives and is responsible for the setting of these objectives on a periodic basis and ensuring that they are appropriate measurable targets.

Independence of Council Members
It has been determined by the Council that all Council Members are independent except for Dr Rod Carr, Professor Roger Nokes and Mr Malcolm Peterson Scott.
