1.5 Writing Task

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic: School Trip</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Text Type: Analysis</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Task:
Your principal Mr Wood, has asked you to write a review about a school trip that you have been on at James Hargest College for him to take to his agent on his next visit to Japan.

Your review could include:

- When
- Where
- How you travelled
- Who you went with
- What you did there
- How long you were there
- Where you plan to go next time

The information that you write about needs to
- Be at least 200 kana in length.
- Include hiragana, katakana and kanji as appropriate.
- Communicate basic personal information, ideas, and opinions.

Note:
- The quality of your language is more important than the quantity.
- Over your final three to five texts, there is to be evidence of communicating beyond the immediate context, for example, about the past, present, and/or future.