2.5 Writing Task

Topic: Japanese & New Zealand Cuisine & Customs

TASK:
Imagine a group of students are coming out from Kumagaya next month and you are preparing a speech to tell them about about the similarities and differences between New Zealand and Japanese eating habits, meals, food and dining out.

You could write about some of the following points:
- Descriptions and/or comparisons of well-known/ popular dishes
- Descriptions and/or comparisons of typical meals
- Description of your favourite food
- Differences in table manners
- Different types of restaurants and traditional dining in Japan

The information that you write about needs to
- Be about 300 kana in length.
- Include hiragana, katakana and kanji as appropriate.
- Include a variety of grammar
- Justification of ideas/opinions

Note:
- The quality of your language is more important than the quantity.