Choose one writing topic

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Writing choice 1</th>
<th>Writing choice 2</th>
<th>Writing choice 3</th>
<th>Writing choice 4</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>“La famille d’aujourd’hui et hier!”</td>
<td>“La fosse des generations, existe-t-elle?”</td>
<td>“Mes parents me prennent la tête!”</td>
<td>“Comment mener vos parents par le bout du nez!”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Write an article for the French department magazine in which you describe the differences between family life now and at the time your grandparents were young. What are the key differences? What has changed? Is family life today easier or harder?</td>
<td>Write an essay in response to the above question. You may wish to discuss whether or not the generation gap exists and what areas of conflict there are between young people and their elders.</td>
<td>Write an e-mail or letter to your French exchange partner telling her about how your parents are really annoying you at the moment. You may wish to describe a specific incident or a series of events.</td>
<td>Create a French class blog giving advice on how to wrap your parents around your little finger. You may wish to include ideas on how young people can or should modify their behaviour or approaches in order to get their parents to agree to what they want.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Type of writing:
- Article for a magazine.
- Essay
- Letter or e-mail
- Blog

Not Achieved
Written French used does not meet the standard for this level of the curriculum.

Achievement
Write a variety of text types in French to convey information, ideas, and opinions in genuine contexts.

Achievement with Merit
Write a variety of text types in convincing French to convey information, ideas, and opinions in genuine contexts.

Achievement with Excellence
Write a variety of text types in effective French to convey information, ideas, and opinions in genuine contexts.

Achievement Standard 2.5 (91122 v1)

“Write a variety of texts in French to convey information, ideas and opinions in genuine contexts”

5 credits