

Master of Science in Applied Psychology (MSc APSY)

School of Psychology, Speech and Hearing

Information and Instructions for Applicants

Prerequisites

Application for entry to the Master of Science in Applied Psychology professional programme is open to graduates who have completed their Bachelor's degree in Psychology, including:

- (1) PSYC 105 and PSYC 106; and
- (2) PSYC 206, and three courses from PSYC 207-213; and
- (3) At least 75 points of 300-level PSYC, including PSYC 344. PSYC 336 would be an advantage.

A B grade average or better in three PSYC 300-level courses is normally required.

Selection Process

Entry to Part I is limited to 15 students in any one year. Selection is based on students' academic records (grade-point-average or 300-level Psychology courses) and, occasionally, on other supporting documents.

Applications

Applications close on 30 November in the year before the course starts. Applications should include:

- Completed application form
- Cover letter explaining why you think the MSc Applied Psychology is for you, and what your post-degree aspirations are
- Curriculum vitae
- Certified copy of your university transcript if you are not a UC student or graduate
- If you are studying elsewhere during the year in which the application is made, please enclose a letter consenting to your course marks being released to UC.

Applications should be sent to: appliedpsychology@canterbury.ac.nz

Successful applicants will be notified in December. A small number of applicants may be placed on a reserve list, and will be notified of this and also if a place on the programme becomes available.

Application documentation will not be returned. For candidates who enter the programme, this will be kept on file. For those not accepted, all documentation will be destroyed.

Overseas applicants and qualifications gained outside New Zealand Universities:

Applicants who gained their academic qualifications at a university outside New Zealand or any tertiary institution which is not a university in New Zealand or elsewhere, must first meet the criteria for admission to the University of Canterbury BEFORE applying: <http://www.canterbury.ac.nz/enrol>.

Any offer of a place in the MSc APSY programme is subject to admission to UC as a postgraduate student.
