

WHY TAKE ON A UC STUDENT?

YOU MAY ALREADY KNOW...

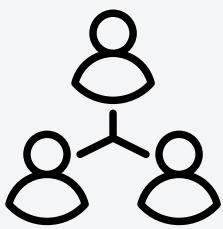

An intern can help bring a fresh perspective to your organisation

Interns can help with social media, reception, or administrative tasks around your workplace

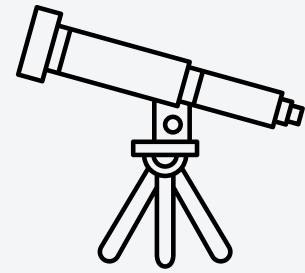

Interns are keen to grow, develop, and work hard. They want to improve during their time with you.

Hosting an intern can be a great opportunity for someone in your business to develop leadership or mentoring skills

BUT DID YOU KNOW...

UC students are been taught by future-focused lecturers at the top of their field - so they really know their stuff!

Our interns come from a range of specialised disciplines e.g. finance, marketing, law, computer science and many more!

As part of their WIL experience, UC students reflect on what they are learning and plan how to improve in future.

UC have many resources to guide WIL supervisors, and a dedicated team to support our UC Partner Organisations.
